172	Mont Blanc Ascension Certificate 1867
	Large printed and manuscript framed certificate in French given to successful mountaineers that climbed Mt. Blanc in the French Alps. This certificate appears to be issued (in manuscript) to Thos. Wm. Nesservey (sp) de Gersey who summitted in August of 1867, and identified as Ascension #367. It is signed by four people whose signatures are a bit illegible, but must be certifying the climb was accomplished. In addition, Simon Alexandrre Des Bois may be the guide. It has the blue stamp of the Chamonix Guides. The piece measures by sight within the frame as 19x13" and is illustrated with a large tinted aquatint at the top of a group of climbers reaching the peak of Mt. Blanc. It also includes the printed itinerary of the climb, with elevations and descriptions of the mountain sections, as encountered. In an old wooden period Victorian frame.
	Overall 24x17½". A handsome certificate. Est. 300 - 500

238	Sierra Club Annual Outing Announcements, Consecutive Run 1901-1929
	A scarce complete run of these small, 6x3½"stitched pamphlets. Issued annually announcing the club's outings to Yosemite and the Sierra, and in the later years to other Western parks, as well. Published in San Francisco and mostly printed by the Murdock Press, they describe the costs, the stage and railroad routes to get there, what to bring, fishing regulations, and the itinerary. These outings led to the High Sierra camps that still exist today for summer campers. The earlier issues list John Muir as President and Joseph LeConte as treasurer of the Club.
	The page count varies from 16 to 32 pages. A complete run of 29 years with duplication of years 1907,1909 and 1911, for a total of 32 issues.

244	Est. 1,000 - 1,500 Four albums of international ski racing photography, 1925-1958
244	Four large binders of uniform size (10x12") assembed by AZ Sport Mode in Vienna, Austria and titled in gilt on their covers: "Die Sport Elite einst und heute", filled with approximately 239 either 5x7 or 8x10 black & white glossy photographs of mostly European ski racing stars from the middle 1920's through the 1958 FIS Championships in Bad Gastein, Austria. An incredible assemblage of ski racers including Franz Gabl, Emile Allais 1937, Anderl Molterer 1950's, Toni Sailer in the 56 Olympics Cortina, Hannes Schroll, who would later found Sugar Bowl in the California Sierra, running the 1930 Kandahar, Friedl Wolfgang, Rudi Matt, Josl Rieder 1957, Andrea Mead Lawrence and Bud Werner, the sole Americans 1956 Cortina Olympics, Francois Bonlieu and Guy Perillat the great French stars 1957, Putzi Frandl, Hans Senger, Martin Strolz, Christian Pravda, Hias Leitner, Karl Schranz in 1958 and the great Stein Ericksen along with many many other earlier skiers. Also included are photos of the teams, officials, training, waxing skis and a few fashion shots, dating period racing and skiing attire. The great thing is that each photo has a typed label mounted below identifying the person and the skiing event, many with racing times, all in German. The albums were put together by a Lothar Robelt, bildberichter, with his card mounted in each album. The pages are very heavy cardboard, and a couple of the binder rings have sprung due to the weight of the interior pages, but the mounted pages, some of which have come loose are all in fine condition as well as the photographs. I cannot imagine a better collection or ski racing photos covering such a long period of skiing history. Provenance: collection of the late Timothy Treacy

240	Das Skilaufen als Sport und Vorkohrsmittel
249	Das Skilaufen als Sport und Verkehrsmittel 48 pp. Illustrated. 21.5x15.3 cm (8½x6"), original pictorial front wrapper.

250	Photo album of early skiing in the European Alps 40 page 12½x9½"photo album filled with approximately 178 original photos, mostly of skiing in the Alps, with a few shots of rowing crews of 8's on a large unidentified river. The photos are mostly 3x4" except some of the rowing images which are approximately 3x6". The only photograph that has any identification is a Gasthof in St Christof. The rowing crews have a PRC on front of their sweaters. There are some really great images of early skiing on longboards with single poles and people doing telemark turns in deep powder, with good shots of their equipment. There are no ski lifts, and there are some pictures of mountain climbing, along with images of Tyrolean characters of the period. The pages are heavy board with gilt edges and a padded morocco gilt stamped cover. Est. 400 - 600
